Mademoiselle Nature

Mademoiselle Nature is a breath of fresh air in the food world. Founded in 2021 by Karine Racicot, this unique grocery store reinstates the human at the heart of the food supply chain. Here, each product has a history, a face and a clear place of origin. Karine deals directly with Quebec producers, without any go-between, to offer more than 400 local, natural, additive-free products such as meats from free-range animals, fish for the Magdalen Islands, oils, cereals, sweet "petits pots" and much more. As you walk in, you will experience the warmth and authenticity of a place where quality, respect and openness have merged with passion. A must for anyone seeking a real taste of Quebec!
