North Hatley Farmers' Market

One of the oldest public markets in the Eastern Townships, the North Hatley Farmers' Market is a popular meeting place for residents of the municipality. Visitors can browse a wonderful selection of plants, fresh vegetables and homemade baked goods in a highly pleasant atmosphere. Enjoy an authentic regional experience as you meet local agricultural producers and craftspeople selling a range of organic produce and unique creations. Open Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon, between mid-May and mid-October.
