

Cultural

Parc Honoré-Langlois

This park pays tribute to Honoré Langlois, son of Louis-Joseph Langlois, one of the first settlers to clear land in Sainte-Catherine-de-Hatley. Acquired by the municipality around 1980 to serve as a sports field, the site was for many years the preferred location for celebrating Quebec's National Holiday (Saint-Jean-Baptiste Day).

