

Cultural

Parc Jonathan-Martel

Jonathan Martel, who passed away in December 2014 at only 36 years old due to multiple sclerosis, became the inspiration behind the Défi des Collines, an annual race organized by Patrick Mahony to raise funds to fight this disease. In September 2014, Jonathan emotionally presented the very first trophy bearing his name. The municipality dedicated this park to him in tribute to his exemplary courage.

