Reflective

Vue sur la côte du piedmont à Sainte-Catherine-de-Hatley

Since 2011 hikers can explore a remarkable area, marked by breathtaking views of the municipality's two large lakes. More than 700 hectares have been permanently protected, and 17 kilometers of trails are accessible free of charge. The route winds through a mature forest, crosses streams and wetlands, and leads to Lake Massawippi.

