Mademoiselle Nature

Mademoiselle Nature is a breath of fresh air in the food world. Founded in 2021 by Karine Racicot, this unique grocery store reinstates the human at the heart of the food supply chain. Here, each product has a history, a face and a clear place of origin. Karine deals directly with Quebec producers, without any go-between, to offer more than 400 local, natural, additive-free products such as meats from free-range animals, fish for the Magdalen Islands, oils, cereals, sweet “petits pots” and much more. As you walk in, you will experience the warmth and authenticity of a place where quality, respect and openness have merged with passion. A must for anyone seeking a real taste of Quebec!

Culinary

Huit5quatre

Huit5Quatre offers a rare and intimate gastronomical experience. Nestled in a Scandinavian decor in the heart of Eastman, this human-sized table d'hôte is managed François and Laura, whose warm welcome transforms every meal into an unforgettable moment. There is only one seating, a limited number of guests and a surprise menu created by chef François Lessard, a French trained chef inspired by Canada's West Coast. Featuring local ingredients sourced within a 30-km radius, each dish celebrates the season and pays tribute to creativity. Soft lights, carefully chosen wines, a slow pace... here, guests take the time to savour, to connect and to live an authentic dining experience.

Lac-d'Argent Road

Lac-d'Argent Road, which connects Route 112 with Des Diligences Road in Eastman, was completely refurbished in 2023. Residents and visitors alike can now easily travel the west side of Silver Lake (lac d'Argent) on foot, by bike or by car. A sidewalk has been built for pedestrians, while cyclists and motorists share a paved roadway with a 30 km/h speed limit. The route provides wonderful views of Silver Lake and Mount Orford.
