Route 143

Route 143 in the Municipality of Hatley runs parallel to Lake Massawippi, offering vistas on Mt. Orford, certainly, but also on the Bunker Hills. The views along this road are possible thanks to active farming, such as the Bouffard's cattle farm, whose products may be found at the Face de Bœuf butcher shop in Ayer's Cliff, and Domaine Bergeville, offering exceptional organic sparkling wines.

The Massawippi Tree Tunnel

This alignment of mature maples trees, some 400 metres on either side of the road and with beautifully intertwined leafage overhead, seems to have been put there many decades ago. For anyone driving around the territory, this tree tunnel remains a meaningful element, a key moment, a prime, manmade landscape. One of the best preserved in the region.

Chemin de la Montagne

The chemin de la Montagne in Sainte-Catherine-de-Hatley is prized by both cycling and scenery enthusiasts, offering seven kilometres of panoramic views on the region's emblematic mountains - Mts. Orford and Owl's Head – and over the Lake Magog valley. The view is made possible by active farming in this part of the territory. Indeed, one may see the only remaining dairy farm in the Municipality, located on a parallel road, the chemin d'Ayer's Cliff.
