

Reflective by car

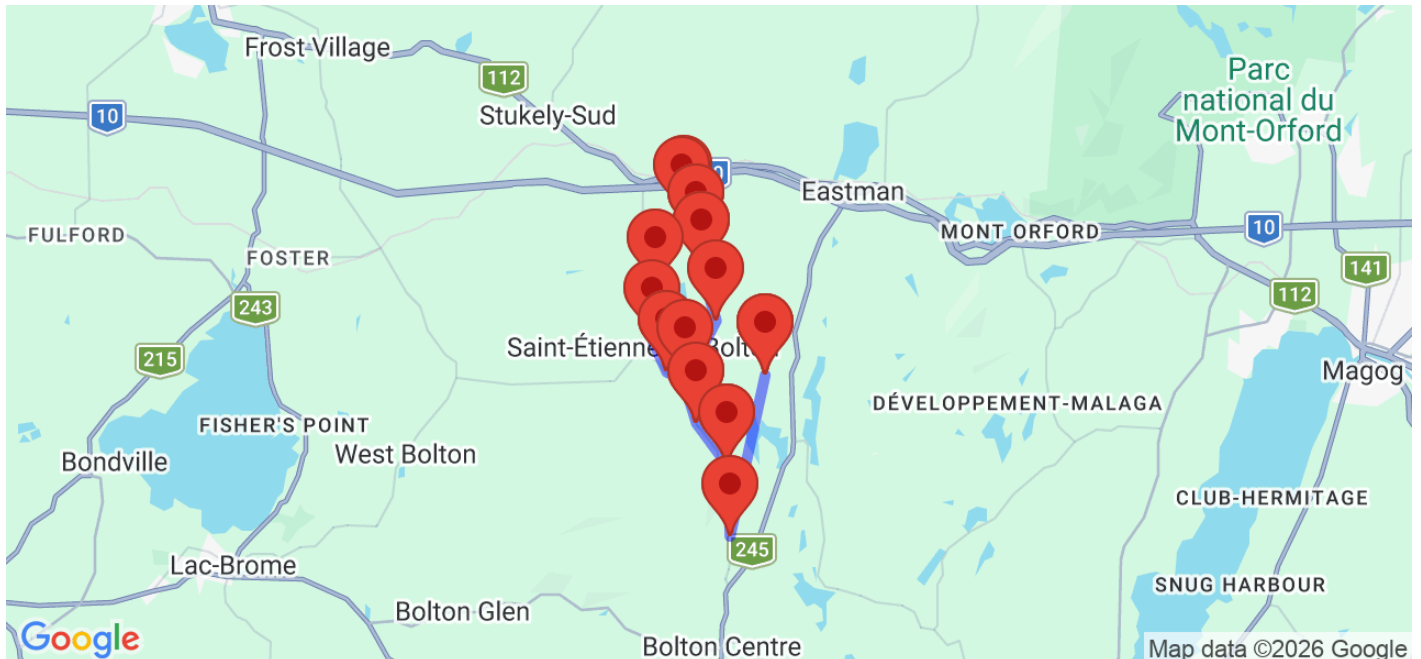

Village des métiers d'art de Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton : dans les coulisses de la création

À l'occasion du Village des métiers d'art de Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, du 31 juillet au 2 août 2026, partez à la rencontre d'artistes et d'artisans passionnés qui vous ouvrent exceptionnellement les portes de leurs ateliers. Découvrez leurs univers créatifs, leurs techniques et les histoires derrière leurs œuvres, dans un parcours où chaque rencontre révèle un nouveau savoir-faire.

Visitez le site web de l'événement pour en savoir plus : <https://www.villagedesmetiersdartseddb.com/>

Price

Gratuit

*Please note that this is not an accurate itinerary. For navigation purposes please refer to Google Maps or the preview map on the website.

Itinerary

Cultural

Stop #1 - Hélène Fortier

Passionate about rug hooking since 2007, Hélène Fortier creates handcrafted works made from pure wool on linen or jute backing. Inspired by a craft tradition dating back to the 19th century, each piece combines patience, precision and artistic expression. A former teacher, she also enjoys sharing her knowledge through demonstrations and workshops. Visit her studio and discover the intricate craftsmanship behind these unique textile artworks.

Address

Stop #1 - Hélène Fortier
80 1e Rang, Saint-Étienne-De-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

- hfortier@axion.ca
 - Website
-

Cultural

Stop #1 - Raymond Desmarteau

Based in Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, author Raymond Desmarteau spent more than 30 years working in radio across Canada and abroad. Throughout his career, he served as a host, producer, director, and programming manager, including roles with Radio-Canada, Radio Canada International, and Radio Classique Montréal. The author of novels and short story collections published in both Quebec and France, he welcomes visitors into his literary world, where a lifelong passion for storytelling comes to life.

Address

Stop #1 - Raymond Desmarteau
80 1e Rang, Saint-Étienne-De-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

- 514 249-0146
 - Website
-

Cultural

Stop #2 - Guillaume Morin

After a career in human resources, Guillaume Morin chose to reconnect with his creativity and the natural world through pottery. A passionate ceramic artist, he creates unique stoneware and earthenware pieces inspired by the shapes, textures and colours found in his surroundings. Visit his studio and discover a creative world where clay becomes a way to explore the beauty and diversity of nature.

Address

Stop #2 - Guillaume Morin
316 1e Rang, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

- ineditatelier@gmail.com
 - Website
-

Cultural

Stop #2 - Marie-les-bains

Marie-les-bains is an artisan dye studio specializing in hand-dyed textiles made with plants and natural extracts. Blending traditional and contemporary techniques, each piece is carefully crafted according to the rhythm of the seasons. Made from natural, durable fibres, these unique creations reflect the beauty of the local landscape while celebrating environmentally responsible craftsmanship.

Address

Stop #2 - Marie-les-bains
316 1er Rang, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

- info@marie-les-bains.com
 - Website
-

Cultural

Stop #3 - Andrée St-Pierre

Passionate painter Andrée St-Pierre has spent many years exploring different techniques to bring her creative vision to life. A curious self-taught artist, she enjoys experimenting with materials and textures, incorporating elements such as epoxy, crackle effects and acrylic pouring into her work. Inspired by a variety of subjects, including horses, ballerinas and sailboats, she creates paintings where realism and imagination meet. Visit her studio and discover an artist who embraces exploration, colour and the joy of creating.

Address

Stop #3 - Andrée St-Pierre
451 1e Rang, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

- 514 913-4919
 - jagar1@hotmail.ca
-

Culinary

Stop #3 - Érablière du lac Libby

Located in Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton since 2018, Érablière du lac Libby draws on more than 30 years of maple syrup production expertise. During maple season, visitors are invited to discover every step of the process, from sap collection to the making of maple butter, maple taffy, maple sugar and other sweet treats. One of the sugarhouse's signature creations is its Canadian-shaped maple sugar candies, made using a carved maple wood mould passed down through the family's heritage.

Address

Érablière du lac Libby
451 1er Rang, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Services

- Parking

Gourmet types

- Maple and honey products

Contact

- 819-640-2838
 - erablieredulaclibby@gmail.com
 - Website
-

Cultural

Stop #4 - Marie Aloir

Based in Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton for more than 30 years, Marie Aloir creates paintings inspired by the natural world around her. Trained in printmaking and visual arts, she has devoted herself to painting since 1983. Her artistic journey has evolved from expressionism and mandalas to landscapes, the shores of the St. Lawrence River and floral works painted directly from nature. Step into her studio and discover a vibrant collection where colour, light and nature come together in a celebration of the landscape.

Address

Atelier #4 - Marie Aloir

631 1er Rang, Saint-Étienne-De-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

• m.aloir@hotmail.com

Cultural

Stop #5 - Sylvie Racicot

A painter based in Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, Sylvie Racicot draws inspiration from the animal and plant life that surrounds her. Using photographs she has captured along the way, she creates artworks that bring together observation, colour and emotion. Curious and passionate, she explores a variety of techniques and surfaces, from canvas and metal to wood and glass. Visit her studio and discover a creative world where nature becomes an endless source of inspiration and joy.

Address

Stop #5 - Sylvie Racicot
947 1e Rang, Saint-Étienne-De-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

- 450 330-4378
 - sylvieracicot55@hotmail.com
-

Cultural

Stop #6 - Sharlotte Novoa Guandique

A ceramic artist and painter originally from Nicaragua, Sharlotte Novoa Guandique creates hand-shaped and hand-painted porcelain works. Inspired by her cultural heritage and her life in Quebec, she explores colour, form and texture through the creation of her own coloured slips. For more than 20 years, she has collaborated closely with Lydia Fortin, combining their expertise to create unique works of art. Visit their studio and discover a world where material, colour and a passion for art come together.

Address

Stop #6 - Sharlotte Novoa Guandique
93 Chemin de Bolton Ctre, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

• 819 919-0969

Cultural

Stop #6 - Lydia Fortin

Ceramic artist and woodworker Lydia Fortin creates one-of-a-kind pieces where clay and wood come together in harmony. Fascinated by the transformation of materials, she explores form, texture and colour—particularly through the use of terra sigillata—to craft works that are both delicate and expressive. Visit her studio and discover a creative world where every piece celebrates the uniqueness of the material and the beauty of the present moment.

Address

Stop #6 - Lydia Fortin
93 Chemin de Bolton Ctre, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

- info@arthicetnunc.com
 - Website
-

Cultural

Stop #7 - Catherine Vincent

Born in Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, Catherine Vincent explores acrylic paint pouring, an abstract art technique where liquid paint flows freely across the canvas without the use of brushes. Fascinated by the spontaneous and unpredictable nature of this process, she creates unique works where colours, shapes and movement come together in unexpected ways. Visit her studio and discover an artistic approach where each creation becomes a meeting point between colour, material and chance.

Address

Stop #7 - Catherine Vincent
28 Rue du Parc, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

• Cathou20100@hotmail.com

Cultural

Stop #8 - Jacinthe Pilon

Based in Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, Jacinthe Pilon creates artworks inspired by the beauty of the natural world. Through botanical printing and cyanotype, she transforms flowers, leaves and natural elements into delicate creations on paper and fabric. Guided by a thoughtful and respectful approach to nature, she explores the connection between art, plants and mindful observation. Visit her studio and discover works where botanical impressions become an invitation to slow down and appreciate the beauty around us.

Address

Stop #8 - Jacinthe Pilon
16 3e Rang, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

- 450 501-7395
 - jacintapilon@hotmail.com
-

Cultural

Stop #9 - Gregory Schlybeurt

A sculptor based in Quebec, Gregory Schlybeurt has spent more than 30 years exploring the power of clay to express human emotions. After an early career in the culinary world, he discovered sculpture—a passion that quickly became his artistic calling. Through figurative, stylized and symbolic works, he allows the material to guide his imagination, creating figures filled with stories and meaning. Visit his studio and discover a sculptural world where clay takes shape to reflect the human experience.

Address

Stop #9 - Gregory Schlybeurt

290 Chemin de Bolton Ctre, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

- 514-953-2104
 - gregschly@gmail.com
 - Website
-

Reflective

Stop #9 - Johanne Fontaine

A passionate herbalist, Johanne Fontaine has spent more than 30 years exploring the world of medicinal plants. Based in Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, she shares her knowledge through her medicinal garden, where nature, tradition and learning come together. A harpist and poet as well, she draws much of her inspiration from the natural world. Visit her garden and discover the beauty, history and remarkable diversity of medicinal plants.

Address

Stop #9 - Johanne Fontaine

290 Chemin de Bolton Ctre, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

• jfherboriste@gmail.com

Cultural

Stop #10 - Harry Bird

A cabinetmaker for more than 45 years, Harry Bird creates unique pieces from trees harvested in his own forest in Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton. Each log is carefully milled, seasoned for several years and crafted to highlight the natural character of the wood. Visit his workshop and discover authentic craftsmanship shaped by the forest and a lifelong passion for the beauty of wood.

Address

Stop #10 - Harry Bird

25 Ch Bird, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

• hb@harrybird.ca
• Website

Cultural

Stop #10 - Ginette Gervais

Based in Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton for more than 40 years, artist Ginette Gervais draws inspiration from nature, emotions and the joy of creating. Her work moves freely between the figurative and the abstract, blending reality with imagination through expressive colours and intuitive forms. Visit her studio and discover a creative world where curiosity, freedom and artistic expression come together.

Address

Stop #10 - Ginette Gervais
25 Ch Bird, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC J0E 2E0

Contact

• gervaisginette513@gmail.com

Cultural

Stop #11 - Julie Bessette

Inspired by nature and the heritage of Indigenous and ancestral traditions, Julie Bessette designs handcrafted jewellery that reflects strength, balance and inner beauty. Made with semi-precious stones, metals, leather and other natural materials, each piece is created as a meaningful personal symbol to wear every day. Visit her studio and discover a collection where fine craftsmanship, natural materials and thoughtful design come together in unique creations.

Address

Stop #11 - Julie Bessette

741 Chemin de Bolton Centre, Saint-Étienne-de-Bolton, QC JOE 2E0

Contact

- info@juliebessette.ca
 - Website
-

Cultural

Stop #12 - Suzanne Martin

Painter, collage artist, embroiderer and textile artist, Suzanne Martin draws inspiration from the landscapes and places that surround her. After many years living in Belgium and travelling abroad, she settled in the Eastern Townships, where nature plays a central role in her creative work. Her paper collages, woven topographic maps and sashiko embroidery reflect a deep connection to territory, memory and the stories held within each place. Visit her studio and discover a delicate world where materials, memories and landscapes come together.

Address

Stop #12 - Suzanne Martin
122 Rue de la Serpentine, Saint-Étienne-De-Bolton, QC J0E 1G0

Contact

• martinsuzanne1958@gmail.com

Cultural

Stop #12 - Miguel Raymond

Video artist, filmmaker and multimedia creator Miguel Raymond explores the connections between image, movement and emotion. With a background in communications from the Université du Québec à Montréal, he has developed a body of work that pushes the boundaries of digital art through films, installations and live performances. His creations, presented in Canada and internationally, offer new ways of seeing and experiencing the world. Step into his artistic universe and discover works where images, sound and storytelling come together.

Address

Stop #12 - Miguel Raymond
122 Rue de la Serpentine, Saint-Étienne-De-Bolton, QC J0E 1G0

Contact

- miguelraymond1234@gmail.com
 - Website
-